Oh Amazing One...

Sometimes, you just have to break the mold to create a more effective plan. There's a season for everything. This was the time for both. Changing the format for the opening general session at the TASSP Assistant Principal Workshop was exactly what this workshop needed. Wow! Goo-guh-moo-guh! And all the rest! I could sit and listen to you all the day long. You can make the impossible...possible! Keep giving the inspiration to others but be sure your re-energize by hearing the laughter and the responses and by seeing the fire in the eyes of the participants in the room.

I look forward to our next shared experience. Until then, God bless you!

Respectfully,

Cindy
